

What If Today was to be your last full day on earth? Matthew 25:1-13
What would you do today if you knew tomorrow were your last day on earth?

In verse 10 we have a powerful statement; it says the door was locked!.

There is a finality in that statement.

As professing Christians most of us would say,

I have a lamp, I am waiting for the bridegroom.

The question that should concern us is,

Do I have enough oil in the lamp to keep me until either,

The Bridegroom comes -or He takes me to His home?

We must keep the fires burning within our soul,

we must keep our relationship with Jesus Christ aflame and not let the world system take out the light that was placed within our spirit when we first met Him.

What would you do today:

if you knew tomorrow were your last day on earth?

I. WOULD YOU BRING YOUR EXPERIENCE WITH GOD UP TO DATE?

Anyone hearing this message:

that doesn't constantly update their experience with God is foolish.

There simply is no other way to state it!

There were five virgins who were wise, and five who were foolish.

Five depended on yesterday's blessings and five had oil for today and they went in.

God looks at our heart. He sees the oil.

There needs to be an up-to-date experience in God.

We need to get involved; we need to keep the oil flowing.

Are you sure you are alive today, or are you living off a past experience?

II. WOULD YOU BE KIND AND FORGIVING TO ONE ANOTHER?

The day is coming when you are going to stand before God and give account.

Are you going to find out at that time you didn't follow through with the Lord's command to forgive one another.

If we don't have a constant cleansing from bitterness and resentment and hurt feelings, and a critical nature, we cannot be in fellowship with the Lord!

God forgave every sin that you committed,

You might not have another day to settle accounts.

The Bible says the door was shut.

Get a supply of oil today!

III. WOULD YOU STOP MAKING EXCUSES?

Would you confess hidden sins?

Sins nobody knows about but you hide in the attic of your heart.

Would you share the gospel message in your last hours?

Share with family, friends and neighbors who don't know Christ.

Have you opened you're heart to Christ?

1. For Salvation?

2. Are you tirelessly striving to obey the orders of your Commander and King?

Come to the altar of Sacrifice Now.

Come while the door is still open!

Come before the door is locked!

2 Corinthians 6:1,2
